Dating is like driving:

1. Look in the mirror.

Why do I want to date?

Are you mature enough to date?

1 Corinthians 13:11

Do you know your strengths and weaknesses?

Do you keep your promises?

Do you know how to manage your time?

Do you know how to take responsibility for your actions?

Are you emotionally healthy?

2. Check your vision.

Proverbs 29:18

The sum total of who you want to be and what you want to do.

"The clearer the vision, the fewer the options, the easier the decisions."

3. Check your dating record.

How was your last relationship(s)?

"History is doomed to repeat itself unless we change."

Are you capable of identifying datable guys/girls?
