

It's not about your relationship with your kids ...
It's about your relationship with God – and the resulting impact it will have on your kids!

I. When Your Circumstances are Challenging (vv.1-11)

A. She is PATIENT through her trials.
James 1:2-4

Patience ultimately provides HOPE.
Romans 5:3-5
1 Thessalonians 1:3

B. She cried out TO God.
Romans 12:12
Psalms 46:1; Psalms 86:7; Psalms 107:6

C. She made a VOW to God.

It was “CONDITIONAL”
It was SPECIFIC

To be a GOOD PARENT – you need to be a person of PRAYER.

II. When God Answers your Prayers (vv.12-20)

“How do you RESPOND when God clearly gives you an answer?”

Hannah responded in FAITH!
2 Corinthians 5:7
Psalms 37:23
Psalms 119:133
Romans 1:17

Does it make a difference?

It changed her ATTITUDE!

It changed her CIRCUMSTANCE!

NOTICE: A previously NORMAL relationship activity proved FRUITLESS UNTIL she began living by FAITH – THEN God REMEMBERED her vow and produced fruit!

To be a GOOD PARENT – you need to walk by FAITH.

III. When God Gives you what you Want (vv.21-28)

Albanian saying: “A man would rather kill his son than break his word.”

Ecclesiastes 5:4-5
Psalms 50:14-15
Psalms 66:13-14
Psalms 119:106

Titus 1:2
Psalms 15:1-4
John 8:44

Hannah GAVE to God – the one thing that was most PRECIOUS to her.

James 1:17

Has God kept His word with you?
Have you made VOWS to God?

To be a GOOD PARENT – you need to be willing to GIVE BACK to God the thing that you love the most: your CHILDREN.
